

Onalaska Market Days

Rules and Regulations

The following rules apply to each vendor. Any failure to comply with listed rules may result in removal from the premises along with the loss of leased lot(s) at Onalaska Market Days Management's discretion.

1. Onalaska Market Days reserves the right to refuse admission to any vendor.
2. All vendors must check in with the office before occupying their lots. Lot fees are to be paid in full before vendors can occupy their spaces. NO EXCEPTIONS!!
3. Anyone selling, swapping, trading, or otherwise engaging in business on the premises must have a lot receipt. Lot receipts are issued for the sole purpose of admitting said vendor. Vendors may be asked to present a lot receipt when renewing lots.
4. There will be no refunds or roll-overs of payments.
5. A vendor may be relocated if not on lot by 9:00 a.m. Saturday.
6. Subleasing of lots is absolutely prohibited; identification may be requested. Anyone caught misusing receipts or subleasing lots may be evicted from the grounds immediately.
7. Renewal of lots for the following month may be made during the show at the Onalaska Market Days booth. Lots that are not renewed at closing time on Sunday, become available at 8:00 a.m. on the Tuesday following the show.
8. Open spaces may be kept from show to show by renewing and paying for spaces in full before the show closes on Sunday. Spaces may be re-rented by management in order to minimize empty spaces. There will be no refund to vendor holding the space(s) to be re-rented.
9. Onalaska Market Days shall designate selling areas and each vendor shall sell and display only within the confines of his or her designated area. No hawking is permitted at any time.
10. Vehicles parked illegally or on a lot not assigned to the owner of the vehicle will be towed at the owner's expense. Do not park in the grassy area in the center of the Market Days area or around the restrooms.
11. A vendor pass must be shown when entering the grounds and kept visible when parked on the grounds. One vendor pass is required for each vehicle.

12. Each vendor is required by Texas state law to have a Texas sales tax permit. Contact (800) 252-5555 for sales tax information.
13. No construction of any kind may be built on lots without the prior consent of the Management (tables, racks, walls, etc.).
14. Electrical service to lots (where available) is a 120-volt, 3-wire plug. The vendor is responsible for supplying a 3-wire adaptor.
15. Vendors must use 12/3 (heavy-duty) extension cords to hook up to electricity. Anyone causing damage to the electrical or plumbing system will be charged a minimum of $25.00 for damages.
16. The Onalaska Market Days office will not cash checks or accept two-party checks.
17. Payments made by check should include the following information: name, physical address, telephone number, date of birth, and driver's license number. No temporary checks will be accepted. Onalaska Market Days reserves the right to refuse payment by check from any vendor. There will be a $25.00 charge on all returned checks.
18. Onalaska Market Days reserves the right, in the sole discretion of its management, to restrict the sale, display or distribution of any printed materials, photographs, books, magazines, pictures, flyers, artwork, film, recordings or other representations.
19. Lots cannot be used for games of skill, chance, lotteries, palm reading, fortune telling, use of dice or cards, auctions or for carnival related purposes.
20. Motorcycles, bicycles, skates, skateboards, scooters, and horses are not permitted on the grounds during the sale. Golf carts, three-wheelers and four-wheelers are prohibited except for authorized personnel.
21. A speed limit of 5 m.p.h. throughout the trade grounds will be strictly enforced.
22. Onalaska Market Days assumes no liability for any disputes among dealers and/or customers or for injuries or damage to persons or property.
23. Onalaska Market Days assumes no liability for the sale of counterfeit merchandise.
24. Vendors are responsible for keeping their lots clean. Trash receptacles will be provided through the premises. A dumpster is located at the front of the Onalaska Market Days entrance for larger trash.
25. Onalaska Market Days management is not responsible for any damaged, lost or stolen personal property or damage to vehicles while on the premises.
26. Anything left on the premises is done so entirely at the risk of the vendor or owner.
27. The public consumption, selling, dispensing or donating of alcoholic beverages of any kind is not permitted on the grounds.

28. Loud music, amplifiers, or any other loud noises that management deems inappropriate will not be allowed.
29. Any advertisements must be displayed within the confines of the vendor's lot. No advertisement may be placed on buildings, trees, posts, or any personal property of Onalaska Market Days.
30. In accordance with state laws, wastewater of any type may not be discharged into, or flow into, a public place, gutter, street, creek or any type of stream or public way.
31. Small animals such as puppies, kittens, birds, etc., will be allowed to be sold, but must be approved by management. No venomous and/or toxic reptiles, insects, spiders or animals shall be sold or allowed on the Onalaska Market Days grounds, including snakes of any kind. Sale of birds will require the appropriate state and/or federal permits where required.
32. All pets must be kept on a leash or carried by the owner at all times.
33. Parents or guardians are responsible for minor children brought onto the premises.
34. Food items and drinks must be sold from a concession lot that meets the State of Texas Health Department standards. The sale of any food item requires management's consent.
35. Vendors selling large or heavy merchandise may give passes (furnished by Onalaska Market Days) to their customers to drive to their booth to pick up merchandise. Vendors are responsible for retrieving those passes from the customers.
36. Onalaska Market Days reserves the right to cancel the show for any month due to severe flooding or any other natural disaster. Credits will be issued to the vendors for use during another month.
37. These rules and regulations are subject to change at any time without notice.
